How to Become an Agent of Change
A Three-Part Introduction to Effective Civic Leadership

Spring 2015 workshops from the Change Leadership Collaborative

Session 1: Recruiting and Building Your Team
Saturday, March 7
10:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Session 2: Creating Your Message
Saturday, March 14
10:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

Session 3: Launching & Managing Your Change Effort
Saturday, March 21
10:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.

INSTRUCTOR
Eric Walker, an experienced organizer in Buffalo, NY, and Energy Democracy Fellow at the Center for Social Inclusion

REGISTER ONLINE
http://continuingstudies.buffalostate.edu/change-leadership

COST
$75 Currently enrolled Buffalo State students
$100 Buffalo State alumni and students from other schools
$125 Community members

* Payment can be made online at the point of registration or through check or money order made payable to “Buffalo State Foundation” and sent to SUNY Buffalo State Graduate School, c/o Marnie Letzelter, Cleveland Hall 204, 1300 Elmwood Avenue, Buffalo, NY 14222. Cost of registration includes course materials.

LOCATION
Workshops will be held at SUNY Buffalo State
Rockwell Hall 204
1300 Elmwood Avenue
Buffalo, NY 14222

For more information, please contact
Marnie Letzelter at (716) 878-5609 or harrismt@buffalostate.edu.

How to Become an Agent of Change is presented by the Change Leadership Collaborative (CLC) at Buffalo State.